Mirage

Ecco2k

I woke up today wishin' I was someone else
Took my consciousness away to escape myself
In this body now, I'm a prisoner
Mirages in the desert when I'm missing her
Love was a mirage, but it's over now
Two stops into the town on the overground
Gettin' sober now, had a heart attack
I just lost my life, but you brought it back
Random character select, I had no luck
Disconnect the smoke alarm when I show up
Love is a mirage, T-shirt extra large
Two electric cars came out the garage

But it's over now
Love was a mirage, but it's over now
Getting sober now
Love was a mirage, but it's over now
But it's over now, it's over now
