

How she got me falling
How she got me falling
How she got me falling
How she got me falling

How she got me falling
I shouldn't have went all all in
She got me all bawling
She got me when I'm balling
On my phone, she calling
On my phone, she calling
How she got me falling
How she got me falling

Shawty, she a baddie and her body tastes like candy
Thaiboy's not her daddy but for shawty, I'mma spend it
Shawty, I'mma spend it

If you want one, I'mma give you ten, ten

Thaiboy never mad, I just wanna win

She will never be sad, she is like a shield
She and me, we racing for a mil'
She and me, we pull up for the kill
Shawty is my best, she keep it real
She driving me so crazy, but it's chill
Just one look, and she know how I feel
That's how I know that she is real
That's how I know that she is real

Make a call to Thaiboy Goon, let's reunite
Drinking Smirnoff Ice, pour pollution in the clean sprite
Nissan GT-R standing at a green light
In the sky, now I'm feeling like a G5
You remind me of someone, it doesn't feel right
Stainless steel knife, show you what it feels like
No sleep, two keys made my nose bleed
Lately I've been feeling ghostly
And I can't believe in anything you've told me
You don't know me, why you tryna hold me
Silver charms around my throat so I'm choking
Blood is on me, hope nobody noticed

How she got me falling
I shouldn't have went all all in
She got me all bawling
She got me when I'm balling
On my phone, she calling
On my phone, she calling
How she got me falling
How she got me falling
