Plastic Surgery

Ecco2k

Six in the morning and I'm thinkin' I should end myself
3 p.m. and I'm thinking I should get some help
Woke up feeling like, feeling like I'm not myself
I hear voices, I hear voices when I'm by myself

No sex with you but I think that you should fuck yourself
Ice cream baby, leave you in the sun and let you melt
Life or death what is the difference, I guess I can't tell
Go through hell, I make a situation for myself
Go to hell, I make a situation for myself
3 vacs on the pack, but you still feel the smell
Watch me baby, I come for you climbing out the well
I was almost at the top but I looked down and fell

Come and shop with me, mom and dads money
Please stop tagging me, it looks bad on me
Got a band with me, we can have a party
Me and bro look clean, plastic surgery
They wanna be like me, it's emergency
She say I'm crazy and you worry me
Please stop hurting me, I need surgery
Need a Burberry for my lil' fairy

How can I be so naive
I can't believe I'm catching feelings
Freezing, I can't feel my teeth
Got snowflakes all over my keys
I'm bleeding from my nose
My heart is beating too fast
Shallow breathing
See you baby you need to leave
No seatbelt, duck into a Prius
You're my missing piece
Will you keep my secrets
I was never evil
But I'll be your demon for you
Fly Norwegian to Berlin
On weekends then go back to Sweden
Please don't break my heart
I promise I'll never get attached to people

Six in the morning and I'm thinking I should end myself
3 p.m. and I'm thinking I should get some help
Woke up feeling like, feeling like I'm not myself
I hear voices, I hear voices when I'm by myself

Come and shop with me, mom and dads money
Please stop tagging me, it looks bad on me
Got a band with me, we can have a party
Me and bro look clean, plastic surgery
They wanna be like me, it's emergency
She say I'm crazy and you worry me
Please stop hurting me, I need surgery
Need a Burberry for my lil' fairy
