

The Void

Ecco2k

I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it
I'm aching for it, aching for it
I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it
I'm aching for it, aching for it
I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it
I'm aching for it

One step back, two steps forward

One foot in to the vortex

I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it

I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it

Aching for it, I'm aching for it

I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it

Two steps back, one step forward

One foot in to the vortex

I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it

Aching for it, I'm aching for it

Forget it, tell me the truth, don't lie to me

You in mind, but won't remember in twenty one seconds

Forget it, tell me the truth, don't lie to me

You in mind, but won't remember in twenty one seconds

I had to save the date, what a day

We know what to say, any way

I flip up on the way, when I'm away

You in mind, but won't remember in twenty one seconds

I got a weapon on me, to kill

All night [?], no more surprises

I got my eyes all [?] from weed again

[?], I can't accept

I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it

I'm aching for it

One step back, two steps forward

One foot in to the vortex

I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it

I'm aching for it, I'm aching for it
