

(I'm in too deep, I know...)

I love to play the victim, I love to play the victim
I love to play the victim, I love to pass the blame
I love to play the victim, I love to play the victim
I love to play the victim, I love to pass the blame

How many sluts are your forbidden friends?
So I could sell her all of it, and she'd be my great friend
So I could sleep, don't do it, it's not good for you
I really know I shouldn't do it, but I got to
I got to stop it, I gotta get a grip
I got to stop it, I gotta get a grip
I got to stop it, I gotta get a grip
I got to stop it, I gotta get a grip
I made a promise to myself (Promise to myself)
I made a contract with myself (Contract with myself)
(Cause I'm by myself)
(Contract with myself)
I walk around with no footsteps, left, right, back
(hold my hand with somebody else)
(I walk around with no footsteps, left, right, left)

I ain't really think about it (I ain't really think about it)
I don't wanna try to hurt nobody (I don't wanna try to hurt nobody)
I don't want to hurt my whole soul too
I don't wanna try to hurt nobody
I don't want to hurt my whole soul too

I love to play the victim, I love to play the victim
I love to play the victim, I love to pass the blame
I love to play the victim, I love to play the victim
I love to play the victim, I love to pass the blame
