

Altamont

Echo & the Bunnymen

Hey now love, I'm right in the middle of
A hurricane that's blowing my way
God's above and all He's really thinking of is
How much pain we've gotta pay

Why do you do it?
'Cause it does for you
Why do I do it?
'Cause it does me too
Don't mind if I do
No, I don't mind if I do, yeah, yeah

Hey now love, why are you so scared of?
And light that breaks the darkest days
I've done stuff and things you've never heard of Souls lost along the way

Why do you do it?
'Cause it does for you
Why do I do it?
'Cause it does me too
Don't mind if I do
No, I don't mind if I do, yeah, yeah

Hey now love, what are you made of?
From the clay unto the dust
It isn't love, you're afraid of
It's losing faith in all you trust

Why do you do it?
'Cause it does for you
Why do I do it?
'Cause it does me too

Why do you do it?
'Cause it does for you
Why do I do it?
'Cause it does me too
Don't mind if I do
No, I don't mind if I do, yeah, yeah

Altamont, tonight
Altamont
