

You Alone

Echoing Angels

I'm desperately wanting to just find a way
I'm searching and seeking for someone to say
That it's alright and it's okay like I know You can
That it's alright and it's okay like I know You can
You alone are God
I am Yours and You're mine
And I know the Heavens will call out Your name
If I don't
I close my eyes and I drift away
To a place I remember, to a place I feel safe
Where it's alright and it's okay
'Coz I'm there in Your arms
Where it's alright and it's okay
'Coz I'm there in Your arms
You alone are God
I am Yours and You're mine
And I know the Heavens will call out Your name
Yes, I know the Heavens will call out Your name
You forgive me, You accept me
Just as I am
And You love me and You want me
To understand
I am Yours and You're mine
And I will worship You, yeah, worship
You alone are God
I am Yours and You're mine
And I know the Heavens will call out Your name
If I don't, yeah, yeah
You alone are God
I am Yours and You're mine
And I know the Heavens will call out Your name
Yes, I know the Heavens will call out Your name
And with all the Heavens, I'll worship You alone
'Coz You alone are God, yeah
