

Hindsight

Echosmith

It's not always black and white
Goodbyes work only half the time
My favorite pastime is a crooked line
Between now and reliving a past life

Really wish that I could look backwards
Put the car in reverse and look at me now

Everything looks better in the rearview with a little hindsight
Hindsight
2020 vision only comes through with a little hindsight

I get the fear of missing out
I'm kinda stuck in a roundabout of memories
I'm overdrawn and I'm losing count
If I'm guessing I'm heading for a breakdown

Reminisce too much to look forward
I get out of reverse when I know it's true

Everything looks better in the rearview with a little hindsight
Hindsight
2020 vision only comes through with a little hindsight

Can't lie, it's a state of mind
I'm too delicate to vacate it, mmm
Can't lie, it's a state of mind
It's all innocent til you can't quit, mmm

Everything looks better in the rearview with a little hindsight
Hindsight
2020 vision only comes through with a little hindsight
