

All Died Young

Eclipse

Bang the drum, raise some hell
Strike the fear and do it well
Keep feeding the beast
Sell the world at any price
Cheat and steal and tell more lies
Keep feeding the beast

As common sense is hacked to pieces
Now the headlines bleeding red
And honesty, moral, integrity
Yeah, they all die young
Yeah, they all die young

Crazy clowns make you laugh
Look away its cut in half
Keep feeding the beast
The right hand shakes, deals and waves
The left hand takes it all away
Yeah

As common sense is hacked to pieces
Now the headlines bleeding red
And honesty, moral, integrity
Yeah, they all die young
Yeah, they all die young
