

Bleed & Scream

Eclipse

You can blame it on the moon
You can blame it on the stars
Blame it on the sadness inside of your heart
But now it's just a memory
A dirty little memory

They can knock you on your feet
You can make it come alive
Worth all the tears
Worth all the lies
And now you're coming back to me
Can I forgive and forget

When you bleed and you feel
That your world is crashing down
I'll be gone, I'll be on my way
When you cry in the night
And you reach out for me
I'm afraid I don't care about you
When you bleed and
Bleed and scream

Now your begging on your knees
And your begging me to stay
You beg me to look past your little mistake
There's nothing you can say to me
No nothing you can say to me

I can handle the pain
Handle the betrayal
Handle the knife you stabbed in my back
Your nothing but a memory
Someone I'm gonna forget

When you bleed and you feel
That your world is crashing down
I'll be gone, I'll be on my way
When you cry in the night
And you reach out for me
I'm afraid I don't care about you
When you bleed and
Bleed and scream

When you bleed and you feel
That your world is crashing down
I'll be gone, I'll be on my way
When you cry in the night
And you reach out for me
I'm afraid I don't care about you
When you bleed and
Bleed and scream
Whoa! Yeah!
