

Breaking My Heart Again

Eclipse

Same ol' same, a different name
Too many times I've been playing this game
I need you, the things that we do
I'm begging you can't believe it's true
You tease me, I can't break free
I'm on the ground baby can't you see
This ain't love no this ain't real
It's just something so weird

It's breaking, breaking my heart again
It's breaking, breaking my heart again
It's breaking my heart

No control, no heart and soul
I've fallen deep down into a hole
I come back, it's dirty and wet
It's one thing I'm gonna live to regret
I can't stop, I can't get enough
This is just a chase for lust
This ain't love no this ain't real
It's just something so weird

It's breaking, breaking my heart again
It's breaking, breaking my heart again
It's breaking my heart

I'm lost in this crazy spin
A fight I will never win

It's breaking, breaking my heart again
It's breaking, breaking my heart again
It's breaking my heart

Always the same, a different name
Too many times I've been playing this game
