Falling Down

Eclipse

Stuck between the dark and light
Don't know what it wrong or right
And I can't stop this rising tide
It's building up from deep within
Your poison kiss it burns my skin
This is a fight I'll never win
I can not break these chains...

I'm falling right down again
Like so many times before
I'm falling right down, down again
I'm falling right down again
And screaming out for more
Falling right down, down again

Bleeding like an open wound
Can't turn back I can't move on
Will I ever see the dawn
Broken hearts and broken dreams
Nothing's ever what it seems
I fight a battle I can't win
I can not break these chains...
