

Forgiven

Eclipse

The hands of time
Ain't leaving no one behind
The wheels spinning round
What's going up will come down

The seventh seal
Hoping to cut you a deal
There's not a trace
The reaper, his name or his face

But here we are...

Can you hear the roar
Cutting through the storm
We cross our hearts
But can we be forgiven
We're laying brick by brick
Step by step we find redemption
Nothing's left
Oh, can we be forgiven
Before the fall

A game of chess
Your life hangs by a thread
Who's holding your rope
Over the edge with no hope

So here we are...

Can you hear the roar
Cutting through the storm
We cross our hearts
But can we be forgiven
We're laying brick by brick
Step by step we find redemption
Nothing's left
Oh, can we be forgiven
Before the fall

Can you hear the roar
Cutting through the storm
We cross our hearts
But can we be forgiven
We're laying brick by brick
Step by step we find redemption
Oh, can we be forgiven
So can you hear him call
Too late we're running out of time
Too late we're running out of time
We're laying brick by brick
Step by step we find redemption
