

One in a Million

Eclipse

Live in an age of confusion
Pieces of shattered dreams
Can we rise from the ashes
Can it all go down
And this nightmare's just begun

Standing right on the edge
Looking down a barrel of a gun (A barrel of a gun)
Close my eyes, carry on, feeling numb
The worst is yet to come

Here I am, your one in a million
Here I am, the one you're gonna break in two
Oh, in two

The whisper of sweet nothing
The poison in your words
Through the veil of deceit
And our flesh is weak
Heaven knows it's running deep

Standing right on the edge
Looking down this bottomless hole
Once a ghost from the past
Now I'm getting under it's control

Here I am, your one in a million
Here I am, the one you're gonna break in two
Oh, break in two

Så öppna din dörr för mig
Vid ruinens brant

Så öppna din dörr för mig

Oh, here I am, your one in a million
Here I am, the one you're gonna break in two
Right in two

Oh, here I am, your one in a million
Here we are, you and I, can't you see
This time we're gonna break in two
Oh, breaking down
