

Stand On Your Feet

Eclipse

Hold on your heart and it slips away
You love, you hate right through the ache
The water's deep and you keep sinking down
You try to breathe but still you drown
Everything's gone and there's no turning back
You're crazy 'cause the world is black
Just wanna die to get outta the pain
It's slowly driving you insane

When you got nothing left to lose
When you got nothing left to prove
When you fall onto your knees
You'd better stand on your feet

Out on the limb, right out on the edge
Too much to let you cry for help
Ain't got no clue where you're goin' from here
You're facing all your deepest fears

When you fall onto your knees
You'd better stand on your feet
When there's nothing more to give
When there's no reason left to live
When the dream is outta reach
You'd better stand on your feet
(Oh oh oh-oh, oh oh oh)
You'd better stand on your feet
(Whoa oh oh-oh, oh oh oh)

When you fall onto your knees
You'd better stand on your feet
When there's nothing more to give
When there's no reason left to live
When the dream is outta reach
You'd better stand on your feet
(Oh oh oh-oh, oh oh oh)
You'd better stand on your feet
(Whoa oh oh-oh, oh oh oh)
You'd better stand on your feet
(Whoa oh oh-oh, oh oh oh)
