

The Unspoken Heroes

Eclipse

Against the odds against the grain marching
Where no one ever dared to go
No matter what they're gonna keep walking
Don't care what the world might throw

Some people give their lives
Stripped naked from all human rights

They are they are the unspoken heroes
They are the unspoken heroes

So many names and forgotten graves
Died in silence in the dark
They shed their tears and their blood knowing
The truth was written in their hearts

These people gave their lives
Stripped naked from all human rights

They are they are the unspoken heroes
They are the unspoken heroes
