

Elena

Ed Prosek

Well There's a line on her palm
Where her boundaries are drawn
And I can't keep for long I know
And from the time I was young
She held my heart with her tongue
And I made my clothes with the lies she spun
But if it wasn't for her, I'd still have my head in the dirt
And it killed me to watch her leave us and it killed me to watch her go

So take my best wishes if you won't take me with you
Oh they don't do me no good at home
And the world can be vicious if your armor's all and used
So don't forget no matter what nothing can stop me loving you
Don't forget no matter what nothing can stop me loving you
Woah woah

And so she ravelled her life through the highway line
In a patchwork that covers a countryside
And she's headed out west
Because she knows it's the best
And I won't stop her cause I love her
And she won't stay and so she left

So take my best wishes if you won't take me with you
Oh they don't do me no good at home
And the world can be vicious if your armor's all and used
So don't forget no matter what nothing can stop me loving you
Don't forget no matter what nothing can stop me loving you
Woah woah

(Da da da)