

Everything Moves

Ed Prosek

I'm tangled in a thought
Like something I forgot
I place it on the fire
And turn it into ashes
And the flames they grow higher

Cause everything moves
Everything moves
Everything moves

Held by your loss
Bound by your thoughts
Everything moves

Let go of the past
Cause everything moves
Everything

But now it's only me
Cornered by what's been
This burning memory
Returns to ash again
And the flames they grow higher

Cause everything moves
Everything moves
Everything moves

Held by your loss
Bound by your thoughts
Everything moves

Let go of the past
Cause everything moves
Everything

(Everything moves)
(Everything)
(Everything moves)
(Everything)
(Everything moves)
(Everything)
(Everything moves)
(Everything)
