

Killing Me

Ed Prosek

Maybe it was hopeless
From the beginning
But we had to burn all of this
To see what we were missing
And it always felt like something
Had to come and save us from ourselves, from ourselves
And we were always hoping this would just fix it self
But it never will
Maybe it was hopeless
Maybe it was hopeless

It should be killing me, killing me, killing me, killing me, killing me
But I ain't losing sleep, losing sleep wondering how this shit could have been
Maybe in another life everything could have turned out alright in the end
But I ain't wasting time sitting here wondering how this shit could have been
Oh, how it could have been
But I can't help the feeling it was hopeless

Maybe we were blameless
But I feel just like a sinner
Begging for forgiveness
With the blood still on my fingernails
I don't love you I can't even love myself
And all that's left is emptiness
Maybe it was hopeless

It should be killing me, killing me, killing me, killing me, killing me
But I ain't losing sleep, losing sleep wondering how this shit could have been
Maybe in another life everything could have turned out alright in the end
But I ain't wasting time sitting here wondering how this shit could have been
Oh, how it could have been
But I can't help the feeling it was hopeless

It should be killing me, killing me, killing me, killing me, killing me
But I ain't losing sleep, losing sleep wondering how this shit could have been
Maybe in another life everything could have turned out alright in the end
But I ain't wasting time sitting here wondering how this shit could have been ould have been

Oh, how it could have been
But I can't help the feeling it was hopeless
I can't help the feeling it was hopeless
I can't help the feeling it was hopeless
I can't help the feeling it was...
