

Tear It All Down

Ed Prosek

I won't come this way again
You have my word, I won't go turning back
I'm just looking for a place to rest
Tired bones that hold my heart in my chest

He ain't seen the last of us
He won't stop
'Till I'm face down in the dust

Tear it all down, darling
We're burning up, yeah
'Till they put us down
And we raise our heads
Tear it
Tear it all down, darling
We're starting again
And we'll keep on fighting
'Till the bitter end
Keep on fighting 'till the bitter end

I won't lie, I'm scared to death
I thank my lucky stars for every breath
If we find our peace again
We can start again and make it better

We'll come around, that I'm sure
But he won't stop
'Till I'm buried in the dust

Tear it all down, darling
We're burning up, yeah
'Till they put us down
And we raise our heads
Tear it
Tear it all down, darling
They're closing in
And we can hold each other
'Till the bitter end
We can hold each other 'till the bitter end

Tell me, can you hear the thunder
It's reaching out to drag us under
All we can do is hold each other
All we do is hold each other

Tear it all down, darling
We're burning up, yeah
'Till they put us down
And we raise our heads
Tear it
Tear it all down, darling
They're closing in
'Till the bitter end
