

Truth

Ed Prosek

Oh the moment she said it I was already gone
I don't know where I'm headed, I'm just chasing the sun
Oh and the feeling ended oh before it was gone
And it all came crashing down, all I could do is run

And we can't turn back so lay my body on the cold dark floor
It I'll all be forgiven, you can't ask for more
More...
All we given and all we'd lose it
All be forgotten, you can't shake to truth

Truth...
Truth...

Beneath your forgiveness I can feel your regret
And I wish I could promise it wouldn't happen again
We were lost for minute and bear this weight for ever
It's crazy to think this could be so much better

We can't turn back so lay my body on the cold dark floor
It I'll all be forgiven, you can't ask for more
More...
And all we've given and all we'd lose
It'll all be forgotten you can't shake the truth

Truth...
Truth...
Truth...
Can't shake the truth

We can't turn back so lay my body on cold dark floor
It'll all be forgiven, you can't ask for more
More...
And all we've given and all we'd lose it'll all be forgotten yo u can't shake the truth

Truth...
