

Pray the Devil Back to Hell

Eddi Reader

Pray the devil back to hell
And the minions as well
It's a wonderful life
Pray the devil out of here
Through the cracks in the mirror
Lets see clear
It's a wonderful life
All the rivers that we cross
Watch us waltz over rocks
Never getting wet
It's a wonderful, wonderful life
Pray the devil back below
Underneath the waters flow
Snuff him out It's a wonderful life
We cloak ourselves in regrets
When the widows weave their sorrows
The midnight chimes count out the times
I said I'd do it tomorrow
Pray the devil back to hell
Pray the devil back to hell
Each river that we cross
Without even getting wet.
Those midnight bells chime out the times
I said I haven't done it yet.
Pray the devil back to hell
Pray the devil back
It's a wonderful life
