

Speechless

Eddie Benjamin

I've been on the freeway, after the rain
Unfamiliar ceilings, are the clouds changin' face
Wanna stop believin', after the pain
If there's a silver linin' then I hope that you'll stay

You say that you're through, but it ain't up to you
I ain't runnin' from fallin' this time

I'll just stay speechless and speak with my actions
Give you the reasons to pick up your phone
Do somethin' crazy, to get a reaction
But I'll just stay speechless to bring you back home, yeah

Runnin' away is easy, but this ain't a game
If I told I was freezing would you be a flame?
I'll fight all of your demons, I'll swim against the rain
Just so I can feel you in my arms once again

You say that you're through, but it ain't up to you
I ain't runnin' from fightin' this time

I'll just stay speechless and speak with my actions
Give you the reasons to pick up your phone
Do somethin' crazy, to get a reaction
But I'll just stay speechless to bring you back home, yeah

Yeah, oh, oh, oh yeah
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
I'll just stay speechless
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
I'll do, do somethin' crazy
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Back home, back home
Back home, back home

I'll just stay speechless and speak with my actions
Give you the reasons to pick up your phone
