Open The Door

Eddie Cochran

Open the door, open the door
I'm just a step, step away from your heart
Open the door and baby let me in
Yes open the door, then close it back again
Open the door, well baby let me in
I'm just a step, step away from your heart
Open the door, you set my heart a-flame
Yes open the door, I'll never be the same
Open the door, to win you is my aim
I'm just a step, step away from your heart
Oh baby you knew, you knew I'd follow you
No matter how far
Well-well-well, if you don't say you love me baby
Gal, my lovin's not up to part
Open the door, and baby let me in
Yes open the door, then close it back again
Open the door, well baby let me in
I'm just a step, step away from your heart
(Oh won't you open up that everlovin' door)
```
