

Let Me Run Into Your Lonely Heart

Eddie Kendricks

Let me run into your lonely heart
Every tall oak tree needs an acorn seed
So let me grow into your lonely heart
If the planets drop
My love still won't stop
Oh baby please
Let me be your main squeeze
You're not a stone
Can't live life alone
Oh, oh baby
Don't you know you need love, oh baby
Let me run into your lonely heart
Without birds to fly, we'd have empty skies
So let me fly into your lonely heart
If the mountains fall, my love will stand tall
Oh my love could fulfill your womanhood
Come take my hand, no one is an island
Oh, oh baby, don't you know you need love
Oh baby hey, hey
Let me run into your lonely heart

To make flowers grow, the waters must flow
Let me run into your lonely heart
With trumpet sound, my love's coming down
Love oh baby don't you know you need love
Love oh baby don't you know you need love
Love is a soul's life blood
Let me run into your lonely heart
Every tall oak tree needs an acorn seed
So let me grow into your lonely heart
Without birds to fly, we'd have empty skies
So let me fly into your lonely heart
To make flowers grow, the waters must flow
Oh, oh baby don't you know you need love
Let me run into your lonely heart
Let me run into your lonely heart
Let me run into your lonely heart...
