

Maybe I'm a Fool to Love You

Eddie Kendricks

Maybe I'm fool to love maybe I'm a fool to need maybe I'm a fool to love you maybe I'm a fool to need you

If love is just a game for fools to play in the end love will be mine my heart will shine I'm just a clown who wears a painted face to cover a frowning face

Maybe I'm a fool to think that you really care maybe
I'm a fool to think that you'll really be there

I told you that I loved you so 'cause I thought you might to know maybe I'm a fool to love you but I do

Maybe I'm a fool to love you maybe I'm a fool to love you but I do maybe I'm a fool to love you maybe I'm a fool to want you but I do

If dreams are what they say that's other than intermission and one day you'll be mine my heart will shine I'm just a clown with a circus leap I'll still be around knockin' on your door can I love you any more

Maybe I'm a fool to think that you really care maybe

I told you I loved you so 'cause I thought you might like to know maybe I'm a fool to love you but I do

Maybe, oooh

Maybe I'm a fool to think you really care maybe I'm a fool to think you'll always be there

I told you I always cared 'cause I thought you'd like to know maybe I'm a fool to love you but I do

Maybe I'm a fool to want you maybe I'm a fool to need you maybe I'm a fool to love you but I do
