

Only Room For Two

Eddie Kendricks

Though the times in which we live
Are filled with pain and doubt
Oh, but when I see your smilin' face
My head tunes troubles out

And tears can't penetrate
My greatest fears won't complicate
That very special place
Where there's only room for two

And all the traces of bad vibrations
Have been removed
The love has grown too strong between
To let them intrude
Now there's only room for two
In our own world
In our little world

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh

Hm hm
Hey, hey

Cannot be turned around
And love protects you like your arms
And I'm glad that I belong
Where there's only room for two

And all the traces of bad vibrations
Have been removed
The love has grown too strong between
To let them intrude
Now there's only room for two, baby
In our (In our) own world
Just me and you in our little world

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, hoo, hoo
Hoo, ooh

And all the traces of bad vibrations
Have been re, removed
Can't you see our love's grown too strong between
To let them intrude

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh
