It Just Ain't Hit Me Yet

Eddie Rabbitt

Cold cup of coffee, stale cigarette Sitting here in the living room Talking to someone out in the kitchen Who's been gone since way last June

'Cause it just ain't hit me yet
Just how gone from me you are
No, it just ain't hit me yet
But when it does, it's gonna break my heart

Walking around like you're by my side Planning things for us to do Talk to your pillow, smell your perfume Close my eyes and I'm loving you

'Cause it just ain't hit me yet
Just how gone from me you are
No, it just ain't hit me yet
But when it does, it's gonna break my heart

No, it just ain't hit me yet
Just how gone from me you are
No, it just ain't hit me yet
But when it does, it's gonna break my heart
