

Fallout Today

Eddie Vedder

Oh, multiplied the questions in her mind
Oh, trying to subtract the great divide
Feeling drowned in her perceptions
Reaching out in all directions
No escape

Oh, second chances granted one more time
And in the depths of darkness, found the light
And the hope she thought abandoned
Was not lost for her companion
Kept it safe

For the fallout today
Was just a test of strength
Oh, don't leave it alone
Dare, carry it on your own
Don't make light of the weight
You'll fortify the chains
And don't beg for forgiveness
We all need to share and shake the pain

For the fallout today
Was just a test of strength
Oh, don't feel this alone
Or carry it on your own
No, don't make light of this weight
You'll fortify it's chains
Never beg for forgiveness
It's a gift to share and shake the pain
Share the pain
