

Goodbye Sunshine

Eddy Arnold

(Goodbye sunshine)

Goodbye sunshine, gee, oh, I'll miss your smile
Don't cry sunshine I'll be back in a while
And when I'm lonesome and the lonely tears start
I'll think of you and there'll be bluebirds in my heart

Keep those blue eyes full of love just for me
And there'll be blue skies anyplace I may be
And don't you worry everything will be fine I'll walk the line
Here's comes that rain kiss me again, goodbye sunshine

(Goodbye sunshine)

Keep those blue eyes full of love just for me
And there'll be blue skies anyplace I may be
And don't you worry everything will be fine I'll walk the line

Goodbye sunshine (goodbye...)
