

I'll Give You Three Guesses

Eddy Arnold

I'll give you three guesses who loves you
Who's loved you right from the start
And not your mother who likes to baby you so
And not the boy back home you used to know oh no

There's somebody special
Who needs you together or apart
Bet you don't need three guesses and not even two
To know that I'm the one sweetheart

Oh yes, there's somebody special
Who needs you together or apart
Bet you don't need three guesses and not even two
To know that I'm the one sweetheart...
