

No Matter Whose Baby You Are

Eddy Arnold

You're somebody's baby you just gotta be
That much to offer can't walk around tree
My thoughts're takin' my heart for much too far
No matter whose baby you are
No matter whose baby you are

No matter who's a gettin' those kisses so fine
I wish those sweet lips were your lips meet mine
To see is to love you to lose leaves a scar
No matter whose baby you are
No matter whose baby you are

Someone is your lover I wish I could be
Your kind of loving was ordered for me
I wish you were mine it's my wish on a star
No matter whose baby you are
No matter whose baby you are

Somebody's warm arms are holding you tight
While my dreams awaken me all through the night
I'm sure that our love would be up too far
No matter whose baby you are
No matter whose baby you are
