

Kill 'Em With Kindness

Eddy Grant

Don't give up
It's no use losing out
Don't get uptight in this moral fight
Just one way to go
Before you fall, think
Your back's against the wall
Zero's to lose and if I wore your shoes
You know I would, I would

Sometimes I could die of frustration
I reach out my hand and get mud in my face
Sweet Lord above, where is my station
Sweet Lord above, where is my train
I wanna know, where is my station

Oh, before I go
I'm gonna take me some
Before I go
I'm gonna take me some
Before I go
I'm gonna take some

I'll kill 'em with kindness
Might stop the blindness
Oh, Lord, oh, what more can we do
Gonna kill 'em with kindness
Might stop the blindness
Oh, Lord, oh, what more can we do

Lost in doubt
Ain't no use in slipping out
What's lost in times, not yours or mine
Can't take it when we go
You'll recall, we've see great empires fall
And I'll wait outside for a change of tide
You know I would, I would

Sometimes I could die of frustration
When I reach out my hand and get mud in my face
Sweet Lord above, where is my station
Sweet Lord above, where is my train
I wanna know, where is my station

Oh, before I go
I'm gonna take me some
Before I go
I'm gonna take me some
Before I go
Oh, I'm gonna take some

I'll kill 'em with kindness
Might just stop that blindness
Oh, Lord, oh, what more can we do
Gonna kill 'em with kindness
Might stop the blindness
Oh, Lord, oh, what more can we do

Gonna kill 'em with kindness
Might stop the blindness
Oh, Lord, oh, what more can we do
Gonna kill 'em with kindness
Might stop the blindness
Oh, Lord, oh, what more can we do...
