Eddy Grant

Political bassa, yeah
Political bassa
Ain't too convinced
It's political bassa-bassa

Political bassa, yeah
Political bassa
Ain't too convinced
It's political bassa-bassa

Something's eating my soul
Something's making me wonder and keeping me cold
Think I'm losing my mind
Only loving can make me leave troubles behind

You make the world seem magic
And it's only too true-magic
Ah, me in my world it's tragic
And they tell me my eve of destruction's you

Political bassa, yeah
Political bassa
Ain't too convinced
It's political bassa-bassa

Political bassa, yeah
Political bassa
Ain't too convinced
It's political bassa-bassa

Don't know if I were you
Don't know if everyday I could hurt someone new
And if perishings were cruise
Then we'd live in a world where the real users lose

You make the world seem magic
And it's only too true-magic
Ah, me in my world it's tragic
And they tell me my eve of destruction's you

Political bassa, yeah
Political bassa
Ain't too convinced

Hey-bitta-boota
Make room right now
Gonna mash up the business
Right now, right now
