

Race Hate

Eddy Grant

Race hate mashing up the world
Race hate mashing up the world
Race hate mashing up the world
Race hate mashing up the world

Did you hear on the radio today
Man shot for his color and creed
Never thought I would see this ya day
Rebel a fight and a give blood for country

Used to feel that a man was a man
Now I hear white is better than black man
Used to feel that my land was my land
Nowadays it a cause vexation
