Please answer my question

Why are you just standing there

Sorry if I made you mad

I admit that I've misbehaved

Maybe our fate has that we should've never met

If it hurt, why didn't you tell me?

If it was hard, why did you just let it go?

Feels like you're still there

But when I looked up to see, I realized she's gone

I can't believe it, in her pretty eyes

I won't be reflected anymore

I can't believe it

You begged me every day

That you wanted to take a walk together

What was I so busy with?

To cruelly turn my back against you?

I know, I'm not good enough

But I thought things would be alright

Because we'd be together forever

If it hurt, why didn't you tell me?
If it was hard, why did you just let it go?

Feels like you're still there
But when I looked up to see, I realized she's gone
I can't believe it, in her pretty eyes
I won't be reflected anymore
I can't believe it

Now just like you wanted
You can be at peace
Now I know the little things that make you happy each minute, each second
I'll always be in the same time and space

I was a fool, I thought we'd be forever
But when I looked up to see, I realized she's gone
I can't believe it, in her pretty eyes
I won't be reflected anymore
I can't believe it
