Hurry and run to me
Before this long night is over
Us make warm on a cold
Before loneliness scolds us

Like the doll you slept with when you were young
Come into my arms

Tightly wrapped around each other
That cozy touch, that scent
Feels like you were always mine

I don't know why
But as if you're riding in my blood
As if you're traveling through my body
It's so warm as if you know everything about me

So I kept you in the drawer underneath my memories

Hurry and run to me
Before this long night is over
Us make warm on a cold
Before loneliness scolds us

Like a lost child shouting for the way
Come into my arms
Like the doll you slept with when you were young
Come into my arms
Come into my arms

Come into my arms

Yeah your embrace
Your breath

How can those short arms
Wrap around the entire universe?
Every time I'm in your arms
Feels like I was always supposed to be there

Long ago, that time long ago
I was already decided for you
That I would crazily, forever love you

I need that embrace
To take out that warmth from the drawer underneath my memories

Hurry and run to me
My embrace
Your breath
My embrace
