Push & pull, push & pull, push & pull

I'm confused again today, your texts bother me
But when we meet, you're so bright
It doesn't work out again today, you act like we'll meet up soon
But when I try to make plans, you say, oppa see you later

Everybody knows, this is being an expert at the push and pull
A girl who puts me up and down
Each day, realize again, an expert at the push and pull
I laugh then cry, you confuse me girl

Baby girl you're queen of push & pull
Push & pull, push & pull
Like a hot hamburger
You make my heart race, you're my fast food
I lovin' it I lovin' it I lovin' it

Everybody knows, this is being an expert at the push and pull
A girl who puts me up and down
Each day, realize again, an expert at the push and pull

I've fallen for your magical charms
