

Changes

Eddy Raven

Neither one of us will change
We're both the same and that's a shame
'Cause when we're together, it was right
We had it all, you and I

You're not changin' me and I'm not changin' you
The only change is what we're goin' through
You took the part of that I was proudest of
Now you're sayin' that's the part that you can't love

Changes

I'm gonna have to make some changes
Now that I know what your game is
I know that I would only lose no matter what I do
And the first change that I'll make is gonna be you

If lovin' what you had ain't what you want
What do you need? You don't need me
You said I was the answer to your prayers
It don't seem fair, we both still care

Changes

I'm gonna have to make some changes
Now that I know what your game is
I know that I would only lose no matter what I do
So the first change that I'll make is gonna be you

Oh, changes

I'm gonna have to make some changes
Now that I know what your game is
I know that I would only lose
Oh, can't you see we're through (Changes)
Oh, somehow I'll get over you, somehow (Changes)
Oh, changes, hard for a young girl to cope (Changes)
