

Just Leave Me Alone

Eddy Raven

I would wish for you what I wish for myself
I love you like nobody else
I don't wish you bad I don't wish you wrong
I wish you'd just leave me alone

I refuse to talk about goodbye
When it's over it don't matter why
So I'm letting go and you're hanging on
Why can't you just leave me alone

Ninety-nine years from now who will care anyhow
There's ninety-nine ways I may be wrong
So I keep putting off why keep putting on
Why can't you just leave me alone

Ninety-nine years from now who will care anyhow
There's ninety-nine ways I may be wrong
But I just need this time for me and my mind
Don't hate me just leave me alone

Why can't you just leave me alone
