

At Once

EDEN

I just want you to know
The feeling's mutual
Wherever you may go
Just know you're not alone

I just want you to know
The feeling's mutual
Wherever you may go
You're never on your own

I just want you to know
The feeling's mutual
Wherever you may go
You're never on your own

How could I let you down
We're already six-feet under
How could I let you down
We're already six-feet under

I just want you to know
Though feelings come and go
A song is only just
So many different waves
It happened all at once
Entangled particles
From when I held you close
Some things never change
You know you're not alone

I just want you to know
The feeling's mutual
Wherever you may go
Just know you're not alone

I just want you to know
The feeling's mutual
Wherever you may go
You're never on your own

I just want you to know
The feeling's mutual
Wherever you may go
You're never own your own

I just want you to know
The feeling's mutual
Wherever you may go
You're never on your own
