

Better Together

EDEN

Hey, do you remember the ghosts we use to be?
Asleep since last September, but was it all a dream?
But now it feels like the sun is on our side, side.
But I still feel like I'm always just a step behind you, but.

Oh, if you let me in I could be the one.
Baby steps but oh.
If you let me in I could be the one.

Cause we're better together. We're better together. We're better together. You and I.
We're better together. We're better together. We're better together. You and I.

Just give me time. We'll make it if it's right. I swore I'd never fall again.
Tables turn, but without mistakes we'll never learn.
And if we just let go we'll learn to love again.

'Cause we're better together I want your everything just give it all don't hold back.
I'll take this whole world on and leave it all in my tracks.
The more you see the less you know I want to forget.
I'll never say die, 'cause I haven't lived yet.
