

Rush away
I can't see us coming down soon
I can't see the sun from this room
But I know that it's setting somewhere
Rituals
Holding us moments from ruin
Replaceable chords on a loop
I'm thumbing through lives
Interchangeable yours

I can't keep checking my phone
I can't keep checking my phone
For what you won't say
But I want you to know
Don't want you to change for me
Honestly

Rushing things
Small talk in deafening rooms
Perpetual motion ensues
And you're never there
When I'm not around

And I can't keep checking my phone
I can't keep checking my phone
For what you won't say
But I want you to know
Don't want you to change for me
These lines complete
Though I loved it here
Honestly
