

Chasing Ghosts

EDEN

I just want you. I just want you, the words I never said but wanted to.

I'm losing you, I'm losing you. But these thoughts won't let you go, they keep running back to you.

Chasing, ghosts.

Chasing, ghosts.

Chasing, ghosts.

Chasing, ghosts.

I just want you (chasing, ghosts) I just want you (chasing, ghosts) I just want you (chasing, chasing).

And now I'm bleeding words, they escape me the recoil it hurts. And I can't look the other way, I'm chasing starlight to find it's died away.

Breathe it in. It's just snow, we're just falling. And we won't always dream, fall back to nothing.

'Cause I'm just starting to learn, I've always been chasing ghosts.

I just want you, just want you.

I just want you, just want you, just want you.
