

Fallin'

EDEN

Explosions in my chest, 'cause I can feel it in my bones.
Forget the words you said, I don't need 'em anymore.
I got it planned out in my head and I won't stop until it's done,
no.

Hear me out, again. Just hear me out, again.

And now I'm falling through the sky, and I can't find my piece of mind, I think I'm falling, I think I'm falling.
If you could see through my point of view, and it keeps leading back to you. 'Cause I'm just falling, I think I'm falling, yeah.

Hear me out, again. Just hear me out, again.

And now I'm falling through the sky, and I can't find my piece
of mind, I think I'm falling, I think I'm falling.
If you could see through my point of view, and it keeps leading back to you. 'Cause I'm just falling, I think I'm falling, yeah.

Falling through the sky, 'cause I can't find my piece of mind.
I think I'm falling, I just keep falling.
