

I can't see a way through
And I can't be myself around you (I'm honest)
I can't stop myself from thinking it's all over (Yeah)
You're gonna stop crying
After the end comes whatever
And ever you need me
These songs all loop

Touchdown, giant leap
Heartbreak, godspeed
Highlight, headline
Edge of the world, fading out

And I loved how the sky burned
Soaking now, we slip apart (Soaking now, I'm falling apart)
Older now, I can't tell you and me apart (Apart)
I just wanted to let you know (Yeah)
That I burn when the sky heard (Sky heard how you stopped)
Disintegrate and fall apart (I'm sorry)
Running out of time
Can never beat the lesser
Of idle stress, and all the rest of us
Enough to move you
I'm just scared that you'll cu-

Still, I loved every second of it
And I can't have the past and where I'm going
Said just take the best of all the pieces and the reasons you're gone
Still, I see myself in all the people I let go
I'm just scared that you'll-
Yeah

Older now, I keep pouring over those lives white lies
Holding out, how many seconds 'til the roof falls in?

So ice the hurt
Last time enough, forever breaks us up
Connotations burn into my lexicon (Yeah)
Foreign feelings riot until the past is won
All my friends forgot but I'm still holding on
I keep fucking up
My lines get crossed and you wanna die often
How you gonna hide all those tears from me?
All you wanted just slipped through changing times, it's not the same
Oh, I'm just scared that you'll c-

Still, I loved every second of it
And I can't have the past and where I'm going
Said just take the best of all the pieces and the reasons you're gone
Still, I see myself in all the people I let go
I'm just scared that you'll-
