

Light Sleeper

EDEN

There's a hole in the world
Now I can hear your voice like you're beside me
And I can see your face like you're in front of me
But you're out of reach
5G send me
Send me
Places that I can't be

In a moment it's over
But there's some things I wish I didn't see
And there's some ways I wish I didn't feel
And there's some waves that towered over me
Not sure how I'm still standing here
But the music's good
And I know it's late, ah

If you want to go just say
No end for me in sight
Not sure how many more ways I can say
That you're the only thing I think about
But I feel it under conversation
Sometimes it's not what it's not
Sometimes it's not what it's not

Crying over stirring the water
The sky ate her up
The weight of the world on my shoulder blades
Don't stray too far
And these nights alone won't be the only ones
And these dark nights aren't the only ones
Still can't tell if I'm strong enough
I take refuge in arms of love
And bury my face in my friend

I came so close to the end
Saved or destroyed in a moment
Light sleeper waking again
Change in my plans
Said if none of this shit
Makes more sense in the end
I'll be pissed

Some things I know you don't show
I let you in and you let it run cold
I saw your face say that I should forget it
And you won't admit but it's all in your head again

I wish it was easier
At least the music's good
And I know it's late, ah

If you want to go just say
No end for me in sight
Not sure how many more ways I can say
That you're the only thing I think about
But I feel it under conversation
Oh, sometimes it's not what it's not

Most times it's not what it's not
It's not

Some things just out of our control
There's nothing you could do
To make me think less of you

And I know
There's nothing I could do
To feel close enough to you
