

(Locked, locked, lo-)

At least you cut me off slow
Your game gets heavy when my mind run
I saw your ghost in New York
Was lookin' for you on my shoulder

It's crazy (it's crazy)
I told you I was such a try hard
Knew it was never gonna last long
Callin' you up, you let me ring out
Nonstop

Guess you can only get part of what you want
I hear the disappointment seeping through the way you talk
And I was biding time, I should've held you in my arms
Tryna reach above the higher levels but they're locked
It's locked

It don't have to be this hard
Sabotage myself in style
It's so bittersweet when crushed
So I'm keepin' my feelings locked

Locked, locked, locked, locked
Locked, locked, locked, locked
Lo-

It's crazy
I told you I was such a try hard
Knew it was never gonna last long
Callin' you up, you let me ring out
Nonstop

Guess you can only get part of what you want
I hear the disappointment seeping through the way you talk
And I was biding time I should've held you in my arms
Tryna reach above the higher levels but they're locked
It's locked

It don't have to be this hard (locked, locked)
Sabotage myself in style (locked, locked)
It's so bittersweet when crushed (locked, locked)
So I'm keepin' my feelings locked (locked, locked)
