EDEN

Breaking in with your new friend
Think of me when you shut it down, down, down, down
Heart breaking we-

And she said, "What you doing, can you come through?"
Certain things I wish I could undo
Don't wanna feel a way so let it pass through
Waist pressed on you in a past life
She said undress her in the bathroom
Give me head, I love a good attitude
Falling for you in a vacuum
Slipping past 100 on the dash soon
When I call it, can you zoom?
Zoom, zoom, zoom yeah

Comms check, one, two

I thought about you all of my night
Found you outside
We had fun crimes
Collapsed some time
I'll cross your mind
Call me next time
Dilated eyes
Quick death, brief life
Crashing, crushing

I lost all focus
Blurring through these motions
You don't give a fuck since
Distance turned to oceans (I can't find my phone)
Weaponize the timeline
I've been here in real life
Dodging all these airstrikes
Anxious but it's alright
Martyrdom weather (Yeah)
(Weather)

Breaking in with your new friend
Think of me when you shut it down, down, down, down

I read your message through the lines
I just wanna cool it off
She just loves crossing all these wires
Hands getting tied up in them
But don't you hate those clichés now?
Almost killed to not get stronger
The photos lasted longer
And after all this time we're not much taller
I know

I lost all focus
Blurring through these motions
You don't give a fuck since
Distance turned to oceans (I can't find my phone)
Weaponize the timeline
I've been here in real life

Dodging all these airstrikes
Anxious but it's alright
Martyrdom weather

Breaking in with your new friend
(Weather)
Think of me when you shut it down
Fucking me out of your head
Heart breaking we're solo, ah
Breaking in with your new friend
Think of me when you shut it dow-
