

Touch me and slip away
I can't hide feeling out of place
I can't function, oh my mistake
Thought you were someone I once knew

I was light years ahead of me
Thoughts in my head don't disappear
I was a maybe (A maybe)
That made you the truth

In time I will come to see it for how it really was In my mind it's only false faces whisper, "Love you"
If that feeling had a price then I would gladly pay it over and over and over 'til I'm broke
And if you held me for ransom I'd love it, I'd never wanna go h ome
But all this hypothetical thinking is digging me down (Down)
And maybe I was seconds away but it doesn't matter now
Heat death only seconds away, so no it don't matter now

[illegible]

Touch me and slip away
I can't hide feeling out of place
I can't function, oh my mistake
Thought you were someone I once knew, woah, yeah

There's light years ahead of me
Voices in my head don't disappear
I was a maybe (A maybe)
That made you the truth

In time I will come to love it for how it really was In my mind it's only false faces whisper, "See you"
If that feeling had a price then I would gladly pay it over and over and over 'til I'm broke
And if you held me for ransom I'd love it, I'd never wanna go h ome
But all this hypothetical thinking is digging me down, down
And maybe I was seconds away but it doesn't matter now
Heat death only seconds away, so no it don't matter now
